Removal Expenses

The actual cost of removal expenses (excluding packing/unpacking) will be paid, provided that three independent estimates have been obtained and the lowest accepted. The successful firm should be instructed to send the account to the Diocesan Office for payment. All three estimates should be sent to the Diocesan Office for record purposes.

Most removal firms offer insurance for goods in transit. If house contents insurance is held this cover may already be provided or may be obtained for a nominal additional premium. Any saving achieved in this respect would be appreciated.
