

The Centre
for the study of Theology and Health
Director: Revd Dr. Jan Berry

Women's stories, women's voices: A course on spirituality for women

Wednesday evenings 7.30 – 9.00 pm.

7th October – 11th November

At Thorpe House, Sowerby Road, Thirsk.

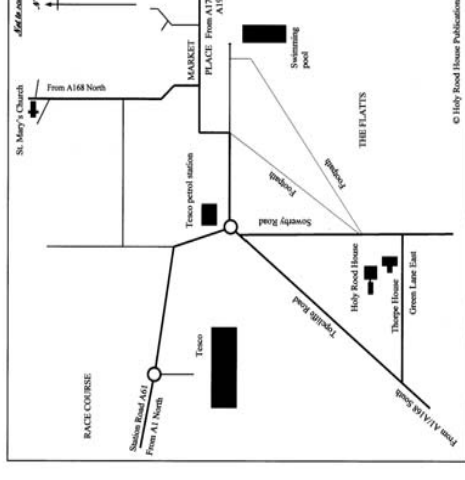

Through these evening workshops we will use biblical stories to help us find our own voice and spirituality. We will explore the stories using creativity and imagination, to relate them to our own experience and spiritual journey.

The cost for each session is £10, or £50 if the whole series is booked in advance.

The Centre for the Study of Theology and Health,
Holy Rood House & Thorpe House

10-12 Sowerby Road,
Thirsk
YO7 1HX

Holy Rood House is about five minutes walk away from the centre of Thirsk, where National Express coaches call daily. The railway station is just a mile away.

We are a registered charity wholly supported by donations from guests, visitors, friends, financial partners, local organisations and some grant making trusts. If you are a tax payer, and can Gift Aid your donation for the course, this will greatly enhance the value of your gift at no extra expense to yourself.

Charity Commissioners No: 1099836
Company Ltd by guarantee no: 4647338

To book, or for more information, please contact:
enquiries@holyroodhouse.org.uk
Tel: 01845 522580