

Asylum Matters

A Christian perspective on the issue of asylum in the UK

9.30am – 4.00pm on Saturday 21 November 2009

At Cranmer Hall, St John's College, Durham

Asylum Matters will be led by:

Dr Nicholas Sagovsky – Canon Theologian, Westminster Abbey

Julian Prior – Open Door, Newcastle

Karen Gray – Manuel Bravo Project, Leeds

With participation from other experts on the UK asylum system

See www.cranmerhall.com for further details

To book a place email Dave Young on d.l.m.young@dur.ac.uk or call 0191 334 3894

Asylum Matters is an exciting opportunity to engage theologically and practically with asylum in 21st Century Britain and think through a Christian response to this issue. This unique event is open to all.

